Jean Sibelius Violin Concerto

The Violin Concerto in D minor, Op. 47, was written by Jean Sibelius in 1904, revised in 1905. It is his only concerto. It is symphonic in scope, with the solo violin and all sections of the orchestra being equal voices. An extended cadenza for the soloist takes on the role of the development section in the first movement.

A superb bargain of a disc with not only the Violin Concerto played by lesser known Christian Ferras but also an absolutely searing account of Finlandia. Karajan is so suited to this repertory that it is a shame he did not record more Sibelius. However, a fine recording with wonderful solo playing in the concerto and two fantastic tone poems.
