“The Girl with All the Gifts” is a hugely cinematic reading experience, set in a post apocalyptic Great Britain. I guess I was taken in by the opening, as you know something is afoot when a young girl is strapped into a chair with no ability to move her limbs, and then force fed something no normal child would eat or want to eat either.

Not surprisingly, the star of the show was Monomoy Girl, the champion filly who made a courageous return to the top ranks of competition this year after missing all of 2019 due to colic and a pulled muscle. She went into the sale ring off an impressive second victory in the Longines Breeders' Cup Distaff at Keeneland the day before the auction. Consigned as part of the ELiTE consignment, Monomoy Girl was purchased by Spendthrift for $9.5 million.
